Invaluable for Rheumatism

Many people have been suffering for the past few years with a severe attack of rheumatism and found that Ballard's Snowment was the only thing that gave satisfaction and tended to alleviate the pains. March 24, '02: John C. Kinsman, Ills. 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by Ed Greene.

The Municipal Ownership association held a meeting at the new story corner Franklin and Polk streets, last night, at which speeches favoring the municipal ownership of public utilities were made by a number of members. Those interested in the association are that the membership is increasing rapidly.—Tampa Times.

Afraid of Strong Medicine.

Many people suffer for years from rheumatic pains, and prefer to do so rather than take the strong medicines usually given for rheumatism, not knowing that quick relief from pain may be obtained simply by applying Chamberlain's Balm and without taking any medicine internally. For sale by Ed Greene and all druggists.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Mother's Favorite.

The soothing and healing properties of this remedy, its pleasant taste and prompt and permanent cures have made it a favorite with people everywhere. It is especially prized by mothers of small children, for colds, croup and whooping cough, as it always affords quick relief, and as it contains no opium or other harmful drug, it may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by Ed Greene and all druggists.

Better Country Schools.

Better country schools are the demand of the hour. Our farming population cannot advance in intelligence without an improvement in the facilities for obtaining the very foundations of an education. The self-satisfied rural communities that are always boasting that they have most excellent schools are almost all of them supporting such poor schools that they would not be allowed to exist in a city or big village. As an evidence of this, we have the fact that a green teacher will not be employed in some cities, and she cannot get the experience without going elsewhere for it. But as soon as she has taught for a number of years in some school she is then readily accepted in the cities and villages referred to. The boards of education wish her to have made her first blunders elsewhere. They do not propose to let her experiment on their pupils. It is the common practice for these applicants for positions to turn to the country, for they know that anything will be accepted in country districts. The country schools are the scenes of the blunders of the green teacher. The teacher improves by the experience, but many of the country children are ruined by them.—National Farmer and Fruit Grower.

The Best Cough Syrup.

S. L. Apple, ex Probate Judge, Ottawa Co., Kansas, writes: "This is to say that I have used Ballard's Horehound Syrup for years, and that I do not hesitate to recommend it as the best cough syrup I have ever used." 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by Ed Greene.

W. F. Espenlaub, of the City Meat Market, wants the public to know that he is still selling meat at the same old place in a brand new shack. His customers are assured of the same courteous and careful attention as heretofore. Call on him when in need meat or produce.

Luckiest Man in Arkansas.

"I'm the luckiest man in Arkansas," writes H. L. Stanley, of Bruno, "since the restoration of my wife's health after five years of continuous coughing and bleeding from the lungs; and I owe my good fortune to the world's greatest medicine, Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which I know from experience will cure consumption if taken in time. My wife improved with first bottle and twelve bottles completed the cure." Cures the worst coughs and colds or money refunded. At Ed Greene druggist. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Registration Books Open April 2.

Registration books will open in all districts in the county Monday, April 2, 1906, and will be open two days in each week in all districts, days to be designated by the district supervisors, and at county seat three days, Mondays, Wednesdays and Saturdays and will close in all districts Saturday, April 28, 1906 according to law.

H. A. ELLIS,

Supervisor Registration.

LaGrippe and Pneumonia.

Pneumonia often follows LaGrippe but never follows the use of Foley's Honey and Tar. It cures la grippe and prevents pneumonia and consumption. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar and refuse any substitute offered. Mr. G. Vacher, of 157 Osgood St., Chicago, writes: "My wife had a severe case of la grippe three years ago, and it left her with a terrible cough. She tried a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar and it gave immediate relief. A 50 cent bottle cured her cough entirely. Refuse substitutes. Sold by Ed Greene.

Life's Recompense.

Life may be dull and grim and sad, Its days filled with misgivings, But evenings—oh, the evening's glad! And evening's life's worth living! At evening 'neath the setting sun, However dull the day may be, Your gummy grin fills life with fun. My wee, baldheaded baby, Your little hands reach up to me And brush away all ruins, Till I'm as glad as I can be And meek you "Goo-ah-fooling!" And I talk baby talk to you And tussle and catch you maybe, And life is full of love and you, My wee, baldheaded baby. —Houston Post.

Should Not Have Hesitated.

A lawyer was talking about Elihu Root's legal talent, says the Philadelphia Telegraph. "He shone in a courtroom," said the lawyer. "From the beginning of his career he shone." "He had a happy gift of humor too. One day he was cross examining a young woman." "How old are you?" he said. "The young woman hesitated." "Don't hesitate," said Mr. Root. "The longer you hesitate the older you'll grow."

A Mean Insinuation.
